

Contents

Foreword by the Editor .....	7
Oliver Holz, EHSAL European University College Brussels, Belgium Machos and softies as reflected in gender-specific dimension in education and upbringing. A historical, modern and perspectival analysis.....	9
Renate Seebauer, Johann Göttel, Europahaus Burgenland, Austria “Masculinity is what femininity is not” – work with boys and lads in Austria .....	23
Oliver Holz, EHSAL European University College Brussels, Belgium The age of the Scouts: being a boy then and now! The triumph of coeducation and adherence to traditional paradigms in Flanders .....	35
Otakar Fleischmann, University of Ústí nad Labem, Czech Republic Remarks to boys’ pedagogy in the Czech Republic – Pedagogical-psychological aspects of identity development of boys and girls.....	47
Bernd Drägestein, Mannigfaltig – Institute for Working with Boys and Men, Olaf Schwarze, Munich Orphanage, Germany Focal point: the German educational system in search of its prodigal sons – work with boys in the FRG.....	57
Meeli Väljaots, University of Tartu, Estonia Historical development and the current position of boys’ education in Estonia .....	75
Víctor Pérez-Samaniego; Carmen Santamaría-García, University of Alcalá, Spain Education, curriculum and masculinity in Spain .....	87
Erika Grossmann, University of Szeged, Hungary Gender education in Hungary – is there such a thing? Depiction of the situation from historical and modern perspectives .....	97
Eva Bilinska-Suchanek, Pedagogical University of Slupsk, Poland Development of boys’ education in Poland .....	111
Fiona Shelton, University of Derby, United Kingdom Too cool for school? Why are our boys not achieving? .....	121

Renate Seebauer, Europahaus Burgenland, Austria “Achievement motives”, “Social experience” and “Essential qualities of teachers and educators” – An empirical study in nine european countries with particular emphasis on boy-specific and girl-specific characteristics .....	133
Renate Seebauer, Europahaus Burgenland, Österreich „Leistungsmotive“, „soziale Erfahrungen“ und „notwendige Eigenschaften von Lehrer/inne/n und Erzieher/inne/n“ – Eine empirische Studie in neun europäischen Ländern mit besonderer Berücksichtigung buben- und Mädchenspezifischer Ausprägungen .....	157
Bernd Drägestein, Mannigfaltig – Institute for Work with Boys and Men, Germany Europe from a boys’ perspective .....	181
Authors .....	183