

Content

I The Past and Perspectives of a Post-War Region: Implications for Europe and Beyond

Bettina Gruber

Between the Past and the Future: Culture of Remembrance, Conflict
Transformation, Education 9

Vedran Džihic

On Trust and Mistrust – The History and Presence of Democracy in Southeastern Europe 17

Walter J. Fend

Yugoslavia: A Short Tale of Competition and Cooperation 29

Kurt Gritsch

War over Kosovo 24 March 1999–10 June 1999 – Behind and Beyond the Scenes:
Why NATO Attacked Yugoslavia 45

Christine Schweitzer

A European Anti-War Movement: The Response of European Civil Society to the Conflicts in the Former Yugoslavia 63

Wolfgang Petritsch

Limits to Humanitarian Intervention: Syria and the Lessons from Bosnia and Kosovo 79

Erhard Busek

Peace and Security in the Balkans: A Challenge for Europe 91

II Sustainable Peacebuilding between Dealing with the Past, Reconciliation, and Learning Peace

Martina Fischer

Dealing with the Past as a Common Challenge for State Institutions and Civil Society in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Serbia and Croatia 107

Ian Bancroft

Reconciliation through Recognition 127

Katarina Kruhonja Overcoming Violence: Responding to Contemporary and Past Violence	137
Slavenka Drakulić A Few “Easy” Steps towards Reconciliation	161
Nenad Šebek The Development of Teaching Materials to Further Peace	169
Editor and Contributors	189