

Contents

Preface	7
Acknowledgements	8
1 Introduction	9
1.1 Organisation of the book	11
2 Mapping the field – state of research and literature	13
2.1 Values and meanings of friluftsliv	13
2.2 Experiencing and learning in friluftsliv	16
3 Friluftsliv in Norway as a physical cultural phenomenon	21
3.1 The emergence of a lifestyle	23
3.1.1 Romantic nature and nationalism	23
3.1.2 Exploration, expedition and adventure	27
3.1.3 To live or to be alive	28
3.1.4 A philosophy of life	30
3.1.5 Outdoor life and outdoor recreation	32
3.2 Cultural policy and decisions	34
3.2.1 Allmannsretten – the ‘right to roam’ in Norway	35
3.2.2 Friluftsløven – the Norwegian ‘recreation in nature’ act	36
3.2.3 Finnmark’s ownership	37
3.2.4 Political action	38
3.2.5 The Mardøla Campaign	39
3.2.6 The Alta Campaign	40
3.3 Participation in friluftsliv – social inequalities	41
4 Friluftsliv – an educational approach	46
4.1 Traditions, precursors and orientations	48
4.2 Friluftsliv in education	49
4.3 Friluftsliv at school	51
4.4 Reflections on learning in friluftsliv	53
4.5 Outline of a friluftsliv didactics	55
4.6 Concluding remarks on friluftsliv and education	64
5 Nature guiding and supervision in nature	68
5.1 Nature-based tourism and friluftsliv	69
5.2 Friluftsliv and the supervisor	71
5.3 Nature guiding and the nature guide	72
5.4 The impact of ‘experience production’ in nature	75

6	Outdoor adventure education	80
6.1	Outdoor – adventure	81
6.2	Education	85
6.3	Outdoor – adventure – education.....	88
6.4	Experiential learning	89
6.5	The experiential learning circle.....	92
6.6	Concluding comparison: friluftsliv versus outdoor education and experiential learning.....	92
7	Friluftsliv activities – prerequisites, expectations and setting goals	97
7.1	Planning and preparing friluftsliv activities and tours	98
7.2	Equipment and clothing.....	101
7.3	Navigation in open country with map and compass.....	108
7.4	Camp life.....	117
7.4.1	Setting up a camp.....	117
7.4.2	Campfire and stove	118
7.4.3	Food and drinks	121
7.5	Debriefing and assessment of a tour.....	124
8	Summer and autumn activities	125
8.1	Trekking	127
8.2	Tours on bikes.....	130
8.3	Activities on and by the water	134
8.4	Fishing.....	152
8.5	Hunting	158
9	Activities on snow and ice	162
9.1	Backcountry and cross-country skiing – the basic forms.....	163
9.2	Skileik : the Norwegian winter playgrounds.....	170
9.2.1	Constructing and organizing winter playgrounds	170
9.2.2	The concept of winter playgrounds	172
9.3	Overnight winter camps.....	178
9.3.1	The lavvo	178
9.3.2	Constructing a snow cave	183
9.4	Ice fishing	188
9.5	Dog sledding.....	190
10	Conclusion on Outdoor Experience, Outdoor Learning and Adventure Education	194
	References	200
	Contributors	213