

Contents

'The Great War as Cultural Heritage' .....	7
Preface by Annette Becker

Experience and Memory of the First World War in Belgium: Comparative and Interdisciplinary Insights
Preface by the editors of "Historische Belgienforschung" .....	9

Geneviève Warland
Introduction
Emotion, Experience, Memory .....	11

Part I

Belgian Soldiers and Civilians in the First World War: Insights in the History of Emotions

---

Rose Spijkerman, Olivier Luminet, Antoon Vrints
Fighting and Writing.
The Psychological Functions of Diary Writing in the First World War .....	23

Geneviève Warland and Olivier Luminet
Nil in ultum remanebit: Germany in the War Diaries of the Historians
Paul Fredericq and Henri Pirenne .....	45

Part II

Representations of the First World War in Belgium: Literature, Poetry, Cultural and Collective Memory

---

Myrthel Van Etterbeeck and Karla Vanraepenbusch
War, Narratives and Memory:
The Defence and Fall of the Belgian Fort Cities in the Cultural Memory of the First World War .....	81

Elke Brems, Reine Meylaerts, Pierre Bouchat, Olivier Klein
Dulce et decorum est:
Reading First World War Poetry	115
Valérie Rosoux, Pierre Bouchat, Olivier Klein
Retelling the War to Give a Chance to Peace.
A Comparative Analysis of Great War Memories	139

Part III

The Centenary of the First World War in Belgium: Commemorations and Memory Dynamics

---

Chantal Kesteloot and Laurence van Ypersele
The Commemorations of the First World War as Seen through Postage Stamps	167
Pierre Bouchat, Olivier Klein, Valérie Rosoux
The Paradoxical Impacts of the Commemorations of the Great War in Belgium	197
Bernard Rimé
Conclusions
Traces of Wartime Emotions in our Collective Memory	219
Authors	225