

Content

Preface	9
Teaching through Stories: The Storyline Approach in Teacher Education	11
Kristine Høeg Karlsen and Margaretha Häggström
Strand 1
Chapter 1	33
Cooperative Learning: The Power of Positive Interdependence in Storyline
Kristine Høeg Karlsen, Heidi Remberg Høeg and Ellen Høeg
Chapter 2	59
Transformative Learning and Identity Building through Aesthetic Experiences in a Storyline
Margaretha Häggström and Katharina Dahlbäck
Chapter 3	81
Using Storyline in Teacher Education: “I am now the teacher I always believed I wanted to be.”
Wendy Emo, Kenneth R. Emo, Kathryn Penrod, Lynda Venhuizen and Renae Ekstrand
Chapter 4	99
An Exploration of the “Mimetic Aspects” of Storyline Used as a Creative and Imaginative Approach to Teaching and Learning in Teacher Education
Kristine Høeg Karlsen, Gitte Cecilie Motzfeldt, Hanne Eik Pilskog, Adrian Kristinsønn Rasmussen and Camilla Blikstad Halstvedt.
Chapter 5	125
Storyline: A Way to Understand Multimodality in a Learning Context and Teacher Education, in Theory and Practice
Margaretha Häggström, Eva-Lena Happstadius and Anna Udén
Chapter 6	141
How Does Teaching with Storyline Affect Teachers, Students and Families?
Wendy Emo and Kenneth R. Emo
Chapter 7	167
Storyline: Why? What? How?
The Storyline Approach in Teacher Education (TEFL)
Doris Kocher

Strand 2

Chapter 8	183
The Fairy-Tale Forest: Developing Pedagogical Content Knowledge for Teaching Primary School Mathematics in The Scottish Storyline Approach. Kristine Høeg Karlsen, Stein Arnold Berggren, Ali Reza Ludvigsen and Ragnhild Louise Næsje
Chapter 9	209
Take Action! Encountering Disorienting Dilemmas in Order to Include the More-than-Human World – an Act of Sustainable Thinking Margaretha Häggström and Linus Djurstedt
Chapter 10	231
Using The Storyline Approach to Integrate Cognition and Emotion in Second Language Education Sharon Ahlquist
Chapter 11	245
Storyline and Motivation An Action Research Case Study Peter J. Mitchell
Chapter 12	263
Making Sense of Sustainable Development Marit Storhaug and Siv Eie
Chapter 13	281
Being in the Moment – An Investigation of the Aesthetic Learning Processes in a Storyline Solveig Toft and Gunhild Brønne Bjørnstad

Strand 3

Chapter 14	303
The Importance of Effective Questioning on Learning Processes in a Storyline Carol Omand
Chapter 15	323
Storyline and Ideology How to Avoid Manipulation in Teaching Ulf Schwänke

Chapter 16	335
Artistry in Storyline Pedagogy
Aesthetic Educational Design as Part of Deep Teaching and Learning
Anna-Lena Østern
Chapter 17	359
From Acting to Action
Transformative Learning for Sustainability through Global Storylines
Diana Ellis
Chapter 18	379
How Digital Tools Can Be Used in Storyline
Ellen Romstad
Chapter 19	393
Story-based Cross-Curricular Teaching and Learning
A Systematic Mapping of the Research Literature on The Scottish Storyline Approach
Kristine Høeg Karlsen and Virginia Lockhart-Pedersen
Authors of the Anthology	433