

Contents

S. Karin Amos, Felix Masarovic, Anne Rohstock & Alexander W. Wiseman Introduction	9
---	---

I. Perspectives on Educational Governance

Benedict Kurz Governance – Lots of Ambiguity and Little Ability to Account for Power?	17
---	----

Molly Brown An Autoethnographic Approach to the Ghostly Governance of Mimicry and Memory	37
---	----

Johanna Neuffer Public Matters? PISA's 'Philosophy of Governance' in Comparison to John Dewey's Conception of 'the Public'	47
---	----

Oscar Oliver Eybers A Discursive Study of Educational Governance and Governmentality in South Africa ..	61
---	----

II. Educational Governance as Critical Discourse, Management and Policy

Magdalena Catharina Diedericks & Morné Diedericks Quality of Religiously-Orientated Higher Education in South Africa	73
--	----

Liztie Prinsloo The Cycle of South African Educational Governance	91
---	----

Junru Jiang, Jing Teng & S. Karin Amos The Response of Chinese Higher Education to Global Trends	107
--	-----

Tom Odhiambo Ojwang Widening Access to Higher Education in the Global South Through Openness and Flexibility Perspectives on the Rhetoric and Reality Within the Context of a Global Discourse on Educational Governance	137
---	-----

III. Resemblances and Similarities: Case Studies from International Educational Governance

Michal-Maré Linden Stories as Agents of Governance: The 2015 FeesMustFall Movement and Education Governance in South Africa	147
Hongmei Sziegat & S. Karin Amos Accreditation as an Instrument of Governance: Perceptions of German Higher Education Institutions	159
Christoph Wilhelm, Chantal Schrader & Saskia Schweiger University Funding in the Triple Helix Model – the Case of Baden-Württemberg (Germany)	173
Astrid P. De León-Rodríguez & S. Karin Amos Higher Education for Sustainable Development in Mexico: Sustainable Development Goals	189
Jasmin Goldhausen, Dinah Hoferer, Jonas Bischof & Siseko H. Kumalo A Situated Account of Knowledge Making: Striving for Inter-Epistemic Dialogue ..	205
Felix Masarovic Learning German – an Analysis of Language Courses for Migrants and Refugees through the Lens of Educational Governance	227
Contributors	241