

Contents

Preface .....	7
---------------	---

Part I Background

Peter Schreiner and Friedrich Schweitzer

International knowledge transfer in religious education. Interpretations and further perspectives .....	11
--	----

Part II Processes of IKT in the practice of RE and in RE teacher education

Peter Schreiner

“In our difference we have a lot in common”. Teacher education and international knowledge transfer – the example of the READY project .....	47
--	----

Thomas Schlag

“Didactics of the question” as an approach to dealing with truth claims in RE. Why the Swiss model of non-denominational RE can be a source of inspiration for international knowledge transfer .....	63
---	----

Yauheniya Danilovich

International knowledge transfer in religious education in the Orthodox tradition .....	77
--	----

Bert Roebben and Katharina Welling

Performative Religious Education. Chances and challenges of a didactical concept in European teacher education .....	91
--	----

Jenny Berglund

The contribution of comparative studies to the international transfer and transformation in religious education .....	107
--	-----

Part III Researching IKT in academic Religious Education

David Käbisch

Knowledge transfer and comparative studies in religious education research. A multifaceted interrelationship .....	125
---	-----

Benjamin Ahme
Mapping the internationalisation of discourses through bibliometric analysis .....	143
Fahimah Ulfat
Researching international knowledge transfer in academic Islamic religious education using the example of gender .....	161
Ednan Aslan
Observations on knowledge transfer in Islamic RE in European and Islamic countries .....	175
Athanasios Stogiannidis
Knowledge transfer and validity claims in religious education: The Greek academic context .....	183
Friedrich Schweitzer
International transfer of professional knowledge in religious education? Structures of knowledge, transferability, and a test case .....	197
Martin Rothgangel
International knowledge transfer in religious education. Epistemological perspectives .....	211
Part IV Theoretical reflections: epistemology, theory of science
Siebren Miedema
Strengthening the links between academia, lifeworld and politics in religious and worldview education .....	229
Jonathan Doney
Theorising boundary encounters as a means to understand diffusion of ideas in religious education .....	243
Part V Conclusions and perspectives
Peter Schreiner and Friedrich Schweitzer
Conclusions and perspectives on future tasks concerning international knowledge transfer in religious education .....	259
International Knowledge Transfer in Religious Education A Manifesto for Discussion .....	267
Authors .....	272