

Contents

Frederike Bartels   Marie-Christine Vierbuchen   Clemens Hillenbrand Foreword.....	7
Part I Every learner matters – Global perspectives on inclusive education
Christian Lindmeier   Bettina Lindmeier
1. Inclusive education international: Meaning und consequences for teacher education .....	15
Clemens Hillenbrand   Sönke Thies
2. Inclusive education and teacher education after war Concepts, evidence, perspectives .....	29
Frederike Bartels   Marie-Christine Vierbuchen
3. Preparing teachers for inclusive schools Global perspectives and local challenges .....	53
Frederike Bartels   Marie-Christine Vierbuchen
4. Shaping inclusive practices Insights from recent inclusion research with the focus on a socio-ecological approach.....	75
Part II Inclusive (teacher) education in Iraq and Kurdistan
Mohammed J. Chachan
5. The contemporary education system in Iraq and Kurdistan .....	87
Araz Bashar Mohammed Ali   Marie-Christine Vierbuchen
6. Inclusive education in Duhok City The gap between policy and implementation, contextual challenges and consequences .....	103
Abeer Othman Al-Mahdawi   Younis Ibrahim Al-Dalawi
7. Inclusive teaching in Iraq Khanaqin as a case study .....	117
Ivan Hasan Murad   Frederike Bartels
8. Preparing teachers for inclusive education in Iraq and Kurdistan .....	125

	Melina Tinnacher   Heike Wendt   Saranda Shabanhaxhaj
9.	Education for all in Iraq? Educational participation of children with disabilities in Iraq What we can learn from the UNICEF household survey.....	135
	Nicole Vieregg   Constantin Mauf-Clausen   Pascal Jochmann   Frederike Bartels   Marie-Christine Vierbuchen
10.	Digitalization and inclusion Participation and access to inclusive education through the implementation of the inclusive learning platform LAYA (Learn As You Are) .....	153
	Marie-Christine Vierbuchen   Frederike Bartels
11.	Using a cascade model to enhance teacher education for inclusion Report from Iraqi inclusion projects.....	165