

Table of Contents

Introduction: Memory and Diversity	7
Laurence McFalls and Astrid M. Fellner

Part I: Memory and Diversity: Literary Perspectives

The Lion Became a Historian
Some Thoughts on Memory, History, and Storytelling	15
Magdalena Pfalzgraf

“Play your part!” – Intermedial Explorations of Memory and the Representation of Diversity
The Examples of John Greyson’s Lilies (1996) and Michel Marc Bouchard’s Les feluettes (1988)	27
Thomas Schmidtgall

‘Travelling Across the Lines’
Investigating Transcultural Memory in Twentieth-Century African Diasporic Literature	49
Nadia Butt

Part II: Memory and Diversity: Ethno/Biographical Perspectives

Souvenirs, secrets, mensonges : ethnographie et mémoire	71
Rebecca Ferrari

Jewish Memory
Some Reminiscences	85
Jonathan Boyarin

Missing Markers: Memory Work Across Continents
For Catherine Portuges and Józef Kwaterko	99
Robert Schwartzwald

Part III: Memory and Diversity: Historical Perspectives

Memory Without Mobility

Labor Migrations, Popular Arts, and the Heritagization of “La Bolduc” 127

Pierre Lavoie

La nostalgie attentiste et l’angle mort de la diversité au Québec 145

Daniel Poitras

Memory, Archive, Power

Intra-German Diversity and the Anti-Archive 163

Laurence McFalls

List of Contributors 177