

Table of Contents

Verena Letzel-Alt & Marcela Pozas DI Around the World. Exploring Differentiated Instructional Practice in General School Education	9
Gemma Scarparolo & Pearl Subban (Australia) Differentiation and Differentiated Instruction. A Philosophy and Pedagogical Approach to Inclusive Teaching and Responsive, Effective Instruction	21
Diana Lawrence-Brown & Pamina Abkowitz (USA) Multilevel Differentiated Instruction for General School Education that Benefits the Whole Class	35
Christine M. Rubie-Davies (New Zealand) High Expectation Teaching and Differentiated Instruction. Convergence and Divergence of Theories	53
Hannu Savolainen (Finland) Inclusive Education in the Era of Comprehensive School System in Finland	69
Natalya Kalatskaya, Roza Valeeva & Aydar Kalimullin (Russia) Differentiated Instruction from Russian Research Perspective	81
Susanne Schwab & Flora Woltran (Austria) Obstacles to Differentiated Instruction (DI). Revieweing Factors Outside the classroom That Contribute to Successful DI Implementation	103
Ozge Culhaoglu & Verena Letzel-Alt (Turkey) Turkish Primary School Teachers' Implementation of Differentiated Instruction. An Explorative Qualitative Study	115
Suet-Ying Yuen, Charles Chun-Yin Leung & Sally Wai-Yan Wan (China) Differentiated Instruction in Practice. Hong Kong Teachers' Experience Participating in a Professional Development Program	133
Robbert Smit, Petra Hecht, Alexandra Taras & Marion Matic (Switzerland) The Role of Cooperative Activities for Differentiated Instruction	149

Wouter Smets (Belgium) How Experts' Advice Influences Teachers' Implementation of Differentiated Instruction	163
Mireille Krischler, Margarita Knickenberg & Carmen L. A. Zurbriggen (Luxemburg) Investigating Effects of Differentiated Instruction From Students' Perspective With the Experience Sampling Method	177
Svea Isabel Kleinert, Kris-Stephen Besa, Darius Haunhorst & Matthias Wilde (Germany) Experimentation and Differentiated Instruction in Biology Lessons. Examining the Effects of Incremental Scaffolds on the Students' Interest	191
Marcela Pozas, José Antonio Palacios Tovar, Lucía Pozas Guerra, Laura Reneé Rivera Armendariz & Ana Sofía Lomelí Zubiría (Mexico) "From My Perspective". Differentiated Instruction in Mathematics According to Lower Secondary School Mexican Students	209
Thelma de Jager (South Africa) Evaluating South African Secondary School Teachers' Effective Adaptive Teaching Practices in Developing Students' Critical Thinking Skills	225
Christoph Helm, Stephan Gerhard Huber, Louis Preisig & Alexandra Postlbauer (Austria) Teachers' Retrospective Evaluation of Changes in Adaptive Teaching During COVID-19	243
Katarina Marcuiš Logožar (Croatia) Differentiated Collaborative Online-Learning. A Practical Example	261
John Hattie Epilogue. A Set of Challenges for Differentiated Instruction	275
Special Acknowledgment to our Peer-Reviewers	287