

Content

Introduction	7
Valued and supported?! Which factors have a positive effect on the professional re-entry of international teachers into school? Results of a cross-national quantitative study	13
André Brandhorst, Renate Schüssler & Silke Hachmeister
International teachers and the lack of teachers with a migration background The case of Flanders	49
Elisabeth Goemans, Katrijn D'Herdt & Oliver Holz
The professional re-entry of international teachers in Germany Access, perspectives, obstacles and opportunities	65
Renate Schüssler, Silke Hachmeister, Nadine Auner, Lilith Beaujean & Carina Göke
The professional re-integration of international teachers Barriers and prospects in the Greek context	101
Vana Chiou & Electra Petracou
Interculturalism and education in Iceland The benefits of teacher diversity in a diverse school	119
Cherry Hopton & Guðrún Pétursdóttir
International teachers in Poland Qualification recognition and employment requirements	137
Maria Aleksandrovich & Grzegorz Piekarski
International teachers in the Slovenian school setting Mihaela Brumen, Jerneja Herzog, Matjaž Duh & Tomaž Zupančič	151
Syrian teachers, migration and educational consequences in the Turkish context ...	169
Nesrin Oruç Ertürk

International teachers in Europe
Obstacles to a new professional start in a country comparison – findings and recommendations from the ITTS project 177
Silke Hachmeister & Renate Schüssler

Authors 203