

Contents

Introduction

- 1 Introducing Religious Literacy and Education in the Nordic Countries 7
Daniel Enstedt, Karin K. Flensner and Wilhelm Kardemark

I. Religious Literacy and Local Practices in Nordic Contexts

- 2 Understanding Complexity
Didactical Strategies for Promoting Critical Religious Literacy
Among Pupils 21
Malin Löfstedt
- 3 Affective Responses to Religious Education
'Difficult Feelings' Amongst Racialized Student Teachers 39
Tine Brøndum
- 4 Religious Media Literacy as Agency in Students' Talk About Religion . . . 55
Anna Wrammert
- 5 Lived Religion in the Graveyard
Critical Disciplinary Literacy in Tasks for Pupils on Religious Education Excursions 71
Camilla Stabel Jørgensen and Lars Unstad
- 6 Exploring Religious Practice in the Non-Confessional
Religious Education Classroom 89
Daniel Enstedt

II. Critical Concepts and Curriculum Studies

- 7 The Coming and Going of Christian Literacy in Norwegian Education . . 107
Inge Andersland
- 8 Religious Literacy in Denmark
What is That – if Anything? 125
Karna Kjeldsen and Tim Jensen

9	Secular Worldviews in Religious Education A Means to Develop Religious Literacy?	143
	Wilhelm Kardemark
10	Religious Empathy and Religious Literacy in Non-Confessional Religious Education	159
	Karin K. Flensner
11	Religious Literacy and Lutheran Religious Education in Finnish Schools ...	177
	Martin Ubani
12	The Paradox of Controversy The Possibilities and Risks of Teaching Controversial Issues in Religious Education	195
	Fredrik Portin

III. Global Outlooks on Religious Literacy in the Nordic Countries

13	An Analysis of Curricula and Discourses of Religious Literacy in Three National Contexts Indonesia, Italy and Sweden	215
	Ahmad Bukhori, Alessio Surian and Kerstin von Brömssen
14	Religiously Literate for What Context? Swedish Religious Education as Mirrored in India	237
	Kristian Niemi

Afterword

15	Afterword	253
	Martha Shaw	