

Inhalt

Eva Wilden and Raphaela Porsch

Researching the professional development of primary EFL teachers An introduction	7
---	---

I. Teaching primary EFL

Angelika Kubanek

25 years of 'new' young learner classrooms Insights and challenges for teacher education	27
---	----

Thorsten Piske

The earlier, the better? Some critical remarks on current EFL teaching to young learners and their implications for foreign language teacher education	45
--	----

Raphaela Porsch and Eva Wilden

The introduction of EFL in primary education in Germany A view from implementation research	59
--	----

II. Policy and practice of primary EFL teacher education

Shelagh Rixon

The role of early language learning teacher education in turning policy into practice	79
--	----

Janet Enever

A passion for teaching, or the brightest and the best? Notions of quality in primary EFL teacher education	95
---	----

Henriette Dausend

Theory and practice in primary English teacher education A review of empirical research until 2015	109
---	-----

III. In-service training of primary EFL teachers

Nora Benitt

Primary EFL teachers as researchers Benefits and challenges	129
--	-----

Annamaria Pinter and Rama Mathew
Teacher development opportunities in an action research project
Primary English teachers working with children as co-researchers in India . . .	141

Alicia Jöckel
Beginning reading and writing in primary EFL classes
The potential of phonics in primary EFL teaching	153

IV. Professional competencies and beliefs of primary EFL teachers

Bianca Roters
(Primary) EFL teachers' professional knowledge
Theoretical assumptions and empirical findings	167

Johannes König, Sandra Lammerding, Günter Nold, Andreas Rohde, Sarah Strauß and Sarantis Tachtsoglou
Teacher education and professional competence of EFL teachers
Evidence from the PKE Project	181

Henning Rossa
You teach what you believe in
BELT – Beliefs about Effective Language Teaching	197

Ann-Cathrin Deters-Philipp
Teacher language in German EFL classrooms at primary level
An interview study	209