

Contents

Preface by Prof. Wolfram Weisse.....	5
Acknowledgements of the author	7
Abbreviations.....	14
1 Introduction.....	16
1.1 Relevance of the topic	16
1.2 State of research.....	17
1.3 Research objectives	18
1.4 Scope and methodology.....	19
1.4.1 Open approach using Girtler’s methods of free fieldwork.....	19
1.4.2 Circular process using Grounded Theory	21
1.4.3 Scope of this study.....	22
1.4.4 Data processing.....	22
1.4.5 Methodological critique	23
1.4.6 Interviews: Content and people.....	25
1.5 Outline.....	35
2 Pakistan’s historical, political and legal frame.....	36
2.1 Partition from India: a traumatic beginning.....	36
2.1.1 The birth of Pakistan based on the “two-nation theory”	36
2.1.2 Kashmir – the bone of contention.....	39
2.1.3 Second partition: secession of Pakistan’s east wing (Bangladesh)	40
2.2 Political developments in the face of military coups and Islamization.....	40
2.2.1 A secular democratic approach under Jinnah.....	40
2.2.2 Islamization after the early deaths of Jinnah and Liaqat Ali Khan	41
2.2.3 The military dictatorship of General Ayub Khan.....	42
2.2.4 The controversial democratic rule of Zulfikar Ali Bhutto	43
2.2.5 Further Islamization under General Zia-ul-Haq.....	44
2.2.6 The unstable democratic decade of Benazir Bhutto and Nawaz Sharif	47
2.2.7 Relative stability under General Pervez Musharraf	47
2.2.8 Civilian governments since 2008.....	48

2.3	Power plays of the military, civilian authorities and extremist forces.....	49
2.3.1	The praetorian and predatory nature of Pakistan’s military	49
2.3.2	The intelligence agencies’ support of the Taliban	50
2.3.3	Counter-terrorist strategies and their violent reverberations	52
2.4	Implications of the blasphemy laws.....	55
2.4.1	Frequent abuse of the blasphemy laws.....	55
2.4.2	The suicide of Bishop John Joseph in protest of the blasphemy law	57
2.4.3	The mob attacks of Shanti Nagar, Sangla Hill and Gojra	58
2.4.4	The case of Asia Bibi and the assassination of two politicians.....	59
2.4.5	The Rimsha Masih case: a turning point?	60
2.4.6	Joseph Colony: blasphemy or land-grabbing?	60
2.4.7	Advocate Rashid Rehman and the murder of reason	61
2.4.8	Christian couple burnt in a brick kiln.....	61
2.4.9	Signs of hope	62
2.5	Biases and low standards in the education system.....	63
2.5.1	Low-quality education	63
2.5.2	Biased curricula and textbooks	64
2.6	Government efforts on behalf of the minorities.....	67
2.6.1	The ministry for minorities	67
2.6.2	Recent policy improvements.....	69
2.6.3	Contested efficacy of state policies.....	71
2.7	Summary and conclusion of chapter 2.....	72
2.7.1	Summary of the historical, political and judicial developments	72
2.7.2	Conclusion of chapter 2	76
3	The situation of Pakistan’s religious minorities	78
3.1	Overview on the religious minorities.....	78
3.1.1	The term ‘religious minority’.....	78
3.1.2	Introduction to the religious groups	78
3.1.3	Census data	80
3.1.4	Instances of peaceful interaction.....	81

3.2	Description of the minority groups.....	82
3.2.1	Christians	82
3.2.2	Hindus and Scheduled Castes	93
3.2.3	Ahmadis	97
3.2.4	Sikhs	101
3.2.5	Parsis.....	103
3.2.6	Baha'is	105
3.2.7	Kalasha.....	107
3.2.8	Shias.....	108
3.2.9	Gender aspects	115
3.3	Photographic impressions of religious life in Pakistan.....	118
3.4	Problems of the minorities (survey).....	123
3.4.1	Militant extremism backed by the Establishment and other stakeholders....	125
3.4.2	Lack of education and communal self-empowerment	128
3.4.3	Caste and class issues.....	132
3.4.4	Legal and institutional discrimination.....	133
3.4.5	Vulnerability and lack of security	136
3.4.6	Biases in the education sector	139
3.4.7	Discrimination in the employment sector	141
3.4.8	Positive assessments of the minorities' situation	142
3.5	Summary and conclusion of chapter 3.....	144
3.5.1	Summary of the different minority groups.....	145
3.5.2	Summary of the minorities' problems.....	146
3.5.3	Conclusion of chapter 3	148
4	Interfaith dialogue and peacebuilding	151
4.1	Theoretical reflections and overview.....	151
4.1.1	Global developments in interfaith dialogue	151
4.1.2	Forms, positions and patterns of dialogue.....	156
4.1.3	The dialogue potential of Christianity, Islam and Hinduism	160
4.1.4	Theories of social interaction.....	170
4.1.5	Interfaith dialogue in the Pakistani context.....	171

4.1.6	Peacebuilding in Pakistan	179
4.1.7	Selection of interfaith dialogue and peacebuilding organizations.....	184
4.2	Interfaith dialogue initiatives.....	188
4.2.1	Pioneering Christian institutions engaged in dialogue (est. 1960s to '80s).....	188
4.2.2	Dialogue councils with religiously mixed leadership	200
4.2.3	Protestant church leaders for dialogue	206
4.2.4	Muslim dialogue efforts	211
4.3	Peacebuilding work of NGOs.....	217
4.3.1	Long-established peacebuilding organizations (since the 1980s/'90s)	217
4.3.2	Peacebuilding NGOs founded in the new millennium.....	225
4.4	Educational institutions for interfaith harmony	236
4.4.1	Overview: Private schools and colleges working for interfaith harmony	236
4.4.2	Minority-run high schools with an inclusive approach	237
4.4.3	Peace education at universities	240
4.5	Photographic impressions of peacebuilders in Pakistan	244
4.6	Modalities of interfaith dialogue/peacebuilding (survey).....	247
4.6.1	The meaning of interfaith dialogue and peacebuilding.....	249
4.6.2	Motivations for interfaith dialogue	251
4.6.3	Participation and exclusion in the dialogues	255
4.6.4	Apprehensions toward dialogue.....	260
4.6.5	Issues around religious and social identity.....	263
4.6.6	Focus and depth of interfaith dialogue.....	268
4.6.7	Doubts about the usefulness of formal dialogue	275
4.6.8	Dialogue of life – the best way to harmony?	279
4.6.9	Obstacles in interfaith peacebuilding work.....	282
4.6.10	Positive Results.....	288
4.7	Analysis, summary and conclusion of chapter 4	292
4.7.1	Analysis of the empirical findings	292
4.7.2	Summary and conclusion of chapter 4.....	312

5	Conclusion	316
5.1	Overall summary and conclusion	316
5.2	Research implications.....	319
5.3	Commentary	320
6	Bibliography.....	322
7	Interview reference list.....	333
8	Index of charts and tables.....	338
8.1	Index of charts	338
8.2	Index of tables	338