

Table of Contents

Introduction

Some Words before All Else ..... 9
Nikolas Schall

Aux prises avec la diversité depuis 1867 : thèmes et enjeux ..... 13
Pierre Lavoie

Part I

Making Canada since 1867: State-Building, National Identities and the Canadianization of the Global Issues

Celebrating First of July: Political Identity Construction and Multi-Cultural Memories in a Postnational State ..... 19
Ursula Lehmkuhl

Montréal 375: Who Speaks When We Speak ..... 37
Elisabeth Tutschek

From Local to Global: Changing Spaces in Canadian Literary and Critical Discourse ..... 57
Wolfgang Klooss

Part II

Unsettling Canada: Turtle Island's Indigenous Peoples and the Canadian Narrative

Reconstructing Métis Territoriality and Identity in the Life of Norbert Welsh, 1840s to 1880s ..... 91
Lisa Schaub

Canada 150 and (some) Indigenous People's Voices ..... 113
Marie-Eve Beaulieu

From Cultural Democratization to Cultural Democracy.
The Blind Spots in Canada’s Official Federal Discourses on Language and Culture 2007–2017 ..... 133
Gillian Lane-Mercier

Irreconcilable ‘Myths of Métissage’:
Indigeneity and Settler Colonialism in Québec ..... 159
Sarah Henzi

Part III
Grappling with Diversity: Mediating Religious, Cultural, Ethnic and Racial Difference

Diversity in Canada’s Citizenship Regime: Resetting Borders and Boundaries .. 181
Jane Jenson

Free Speech and the Protection of Human Dignity in Canada, Germany, and the United States: The Moral Legitimation of Competing Discourses ..... 203
Paul Carls

On Charles Taylor’s “Deep Diversity” ..... 221
Charles Blattberg

Conclusion

Canada 150: Celebrating Ambiguity ..... 239
Laurence McFalls

List of Contributors ..... 249