

Contents

Foreword	7
1. Introduction: Defining the roots of education innovations	9
Emma Kostiainen, Matti Rautiainen, Silke Trumpa and Isolde Rehm
2. School development and innovation in Finland and Germany	21
Isolde Rehm, Silke Trumpa, Matti Rautiainen, Emma Kostiainen and Lucia Hefti
3. Successful school development. Characteristics of innovative basic schools in Germany with regards to successful school development	35
Anne Weidemann-Akkermans
4. Innovative schools and developmental processes in schools in Finland	53
Laura Kuusela, Marianne Väliäho, Matti Rautiainen and Emma Kostiainen
5. Corporate Learning Architecture as a new perspective on the strategic development of innovative learning environments Lessons learned in the SRH University Heidelberg case example	63
Katja Ninnemann
6. Synergy and Sharing. Collaborative Environments for the Future Campus	79
Suvi Nenonen
7. The transformation of schools: Spatial potentials and the limits of educational architecture and neighborhoods	95
Albrecht Wacker and Marc Kirschbaum
8. From Reform to Re-form. Developing a professional learning community by implementing interdisciplinary learning modules in the Finnish curriculum	109
Iida-Maria Peltomaa and Lachlan Paterson
9. Innovative schools and learning environments in the future	123
Matti Rautiainen, Isolde Rehm, Silke Trumpa and Emma Kostiainen
Authors	130

Contents

The other side (of “PISA”)	141
Silke Trumpa, Isolde Rehm, Matti Rautiainen and Emma Kostainen
Different perspectives on innovations	155
Isolde Rehm, Silke Trumpa, Emma Kostainen and Matti Rautiainen
Treasuries of good educational practices in Finland and Germany	172
Emma Kostainen, Silke Trumpa, Matti Rautiainen and Isolde Rehm

Boxes

1. Planet School – Multimedia curriculum topics for teachers, pupils and anyone interested in education	174
2. Digitutor – Promoting the digital leap.....	176
3. Orientation for first-year students – Gamification on campus of a private University	178
4. Escape rooms in history learning.....	180
5. Project “Kopf-Stehen” (Headstand): Encouraging physical activity at the university	182
6. Phenomenon-based curriculum in teacher education.....	184
7. “Music Squared” – Music education between multiculturalism, school and city development.....	186
8. Sannäs school – Implementing the idea of a new comprehensive school	188
9. Family Classes.....	190
10. Modern structural solutions for the school day.....	192
11. A “script” for the classroom – Learning to analyze and carry out history lessons in a practical way.....	194
12. Creative expertise building bridges in teachers’ basic and continuing education.....	196
13. Experiential education as an answer to a digitalized world.....	198
14. Eco-school in Laukaa.....	200
15. Anthropocentric from the start – Early education in a children’s home	202
16. Schools without desks	204
17. Leadership Academy – An Austrian training program on leadership and innovation for principals	206
18. Practice-based research and Virtual Realities in a Digital Learning Lab	208