

Contents

David Lansing Cameron & Ragnar Thygesen Approaching the problem of transition in special education.....	7
---	---

Part 1. Special education in transition

Velibor Bobo Kovač Transition: A conceptual analysis and integrative model	19
--	----

Sven Nilsen & Camilla Herlofsen The legal basis for special needs education in Norway: Changing policy principles	35
--	----

Camilla Brørup Dyssegaard & Niels Egelund Developments in special education and the inclusion process in Denmark Establishment, consolidation, criticism, inclusion – conceptual and practical challenges	63
---	----

David Lansing Cameron & Anne Dorte Tveit Considerations on the evolving role and practice of the special educator in Norway	73
--	----

Johan Malmqvist The SENCo as hybrid: Perspectives on transitions related to inclusion as seen in the Swedish context.....	91
--	----

Kristina Ström & Britta Hannus-Gullmets From special (class) teacher to special educator: The Finnish case	115
--	-----

Part 2. Transitions in special education

Ragnar Thygesen & David Lansing Cameron Transitions in special education and related contexts: A brief overview of the research	137
--	-----

David Lansing Cameron

Collaboration on behalf of children with extensive support needs:
Implications for the transition to primary school151

Heidi Omdal

From silence to speech: Understanding children who withdraw from social communication from a relational and contextual perspective171

Maryann Jortveit

Cultural transitions in Norwegian schools:
The question and challenge of inclusion189

Ingrid Lund

Dropping out or holding on?
Dropping out as a sign of the difficulties experienced by adolescents with social, emotional and behavioural difficulties
(SEBD) in the transition to upper secondary school205

Anne Dorthveit

Transitioning between systems:
Theoretical and political constructions of the roles and relationships between teachers and parents of children with special needs217

Ragnar Thygesen & Astrid Birgitte Eggen

Bridging summative and formative assessment for children with special needs233

Jorun Buli-Holmberg

Transitioning from School to Work:
Opportunities and Challenges for Young Adults with Special Needs251

David Mitchell

What's next? Standards and guidelines for strengthening school-to-post-school transition programmes for students with disabilities273